

Beach House Expands its Mental Health Services with the Addition of Mental Health Partial Hospitalization Program

A Continuum of Care Under One Umbrella of Support

Juno Beach, FL – March 20, 2026 – Beach House Behavioral Health, Inc. (“Beach House” or the “Company”), a substance abuse and mental health facility business, a portfolio company of BelHealth Investment Partners, LLC (“BelHealth”), a Fort Lauderdale-based healthcare private equity firm, announced the has added a Continuum of Care Under One Umbrella of Support.

Mark Pundt, M.D., CEO at Beach House stated “By offering multiple levels of care, we ensure our clients receive the right support at the right time, with seamless transitions that promote stability, safety, and long-term healing. This allows us to deliver a true continuum of care - Residential Treatment (RT), Partial Hospitalization (PHP), and Intensive Outpatient Services (IOP) - all within a clinically guided care ecosystem. This milestone strengthens our ability to better partner with providers, clients, and their families in delivering comprehensive, compassionate care, every step of the way”.
