

Inder Tallur Promoted to Senior Managing Director

Has been with BelHealth Investment Partners since inception*

More than 20 years of private equity investing experience*

New York, New York – November 2, 2018 – BelHealth Investment Partners (“BelHealth”), a healthcare-focused private equity firm, is pleased to announce that Inder Tallur has been promoted to Senior Managing Director. Mr. Tallur was previously a Managing Director and has been with BelHealth since its inception in 2011.

While at BelHealth, Mr. Tallur has contributed to all aspects of the firm’s funds including origination, leading transactions and developing investment theses. He has also served as a member of BelHealth’s investment and valuation committees since the firm’s inception and has been an integral part of BelHealth’s maturity. He plays a crucial role in the firm’s fundraising efforts and limited partner relationships and is a key decision maker related to fund operations and overall strategy.

Mr. Tallur has more than two decades of experience in private equity investing. He previously spent over 13 years at Comvest Partners, where he worked closely with Harold Blue and Joe Wynne. At Comvest, he focused on investing in micro and small cap companies across a variety of industries including technology and healthcare. He received an MBA from Tulane University, an MS in Finance from Boston College and a BS in Electronics Engineering from Visvesvaraya National Institute of Technology in Nagpur, India.

Inder Tallur said, “It has truly been a pleasure to help form BelHealth during the past eight years and to watch its maturity. The experience of watching the firm grow and thrive has been personally rewarding. I look forward to working tirelessly to help BelHealth improve each day and generate strong returns for our investors. The firm and its personnel have matured quickly and I am excited about our bright future.”

Dennis Drislane, Managing Partner of BelHealth, said, “Inder has truly been an invaluable resource to BelHealth and is a significant contributor to all aspects of the firm. He has been a crucial part of this organization since its inception and this promotion is a deserved reward for those efforts. He is a strong leader and mentor to our junior personnel while also being a valuable voice in issues related to overall firm management as I transition away from my day-to-day role.”

Harold S. Blue, Managing Partner of BelHealth, added, “I have known Inder for more than 23 years and I can’t think of a more deserving person to assist me and the entire team in successfully moving BelHealth forward. He is an integral part of the team and has been a trusted partner for many years. The style he brings is a great complement to the rest of the team, myself included, and I look forward to many more years of success working alongside Inder.”
